Aloha and Welcome to the 2017 Hawai‘i Psychological Association Convention!

The 2017 Hawai‘i Psychological Association (HPA) Convention, Surviving and Thriving in Challenging Times: Best Practice Clinical and Business Innovations reflects HPA’s ongoing commitment to our members. HPA strives to provide our members with relevant, high quality resources and trainings, while strengthening our mental health community by proactively addressing the challenges and opportunities that face our local psychologists. HPA members will notice that in addition to discounts for the convention and other HPA sponsored activities, we recently began monthly grand rounds that offer free CE credits to participants. We also have an updated website with more links to resources. HPA recognizes that strengthening the training of our members serves to improve the important services we all offer to our communities.

I think everyone will agree that 2016 and 2017 has been a challenging time, as practitioners and consumers face uncertainty due to some of the local and national legislative threats that are in front of us. There has never been a more important time for all of us to be members of the practice organizations that remain on the forefront of the rapidly changing marketplace. Our dues and our active participation strengthen the advocacy efforts that go towards protecting our profession. Thus, HPA hopes you will join us Friday morning for our Town Hall/Annual Membership meeting where the HPA board will discuss HPA's plans for 2018. The Town Hall is also an opportunity for our members to chime in and let us know what issues are important to you.

This year’s exciting keynote speakers and convention line-up reflect HPA’s commitment to evidence-based practice (and a good deal of mindfulness training to help all of us survive in these challenging times): Friday’s Keynote Workshop Speaker, Dr. Cathy Moonshine will present on Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT). At Friday’s luncheon, Dr. Alex Siegel will present on the Psychology Interjurisdictional Compact (PSYPACT) and Telepsychology.

In addition to our keynotes, our Friday workshops cover topics such as mindfulness, self-hypnosis, practitioner wellness, and substance abuse. We hope everyone will stay for the afternoon poster session and cocktail hour. This is always a great way for our HPA community to network and put faces to the names of our colleagues.

Saturday morning’s keynote presentation is, “Healthcare Economics and Current Challenges and Opportunities” presented by Dr. Jeanne Wendel and William O’Donohue. On Saturday afternoon, Dr. Larry James (with Dr. William O’Donohue as a discussant) will present the keynote, “Profiling Domestic Radicalized Terrorists”.

In addition to the keynotes, Saturday has workshops on motivational interviewing, adoptive youth, children’s mental health, professional practice, the EPPP I & II and much more.

We thank you all for your continued support of HPA and our community. And we welcome any thoughts and feedback on ways that we can continue to serve you.

Aloha,

Tanya Gamby, Ph.D.
President-Elect
Hawai‘i Psychological Association
